

ASC/TERT1

Morphology and growth characteristics

ASC/TERT1 cells are characterized by the typical spindle-shaped morphology of mesenchymal stem cells and can be grown for a minimum of 100 population doublings without showing signs of growth retardation.

The cells show a constant growth rate with a population doubling time of 36-48 hours.